fancies, but as I stood at the railway depot in Kansas City last Tuesday morning I was almost involuntarily led to repeat over to myself those grand lines of the poet, Whittier:

"The strate of ploasers, of saless yet to be seen and some, and now here before me rolled the "human sea."
The ploneers had come and gone, and now here before me rolled the "human sea."
The "Argonants" of 1849 and the "Santa Fe" traders were here the pioneers, while the "human sea" that now rolls past is made up of every nation, kindred, tongue and people. Twice every day sixteen large passenger trains leave the Kansas City railway depot for all points of the compass, and the same number arrive. Thousands of people travel by these trains, and at the time of their arrival and transfer from car to car it creates a babel of orderly confusion, the equal of which is to be found in but few places in this country. We here meet the Mexican, the Texan, the plainsman, the miner from the mountains who talks about "silver," "gold" and carbonates, the Yankee from the far East listening attentively in hopes of becoming a bonanza king, the ubjuditous commercial traveler, the long-haired native Missourian with his outfit, consisting of dog, gun, bottle of whisky and a package of quinine—while the Indian, clad in the garments of civilization, stands by and looks wonderingly on as he sees his race pushed steadily back before this resistless tide. Kansas is destined to be the future great city of the West. Its business far exceeds its proportionable share, as based upon the ratio of population. The merchants of Texas, New Mexico, Indian Territory, Arizona, Colorado, Montana, Utah, Kansas and Nebraska all ato to Kansas City to buy their goods, inus building up heavy wholesale dealers with their trade. It is a city of $5,000 insbitants now, and is increasing in population at the rate of from 15,000 to 20,000 people per year. It is truly "a city set on a hill that cannot be hid." While in Kansas City I called on the Oglebay brothers, formerly of your city, now prominent wholesale grocery merchanis there. I was very kingly received by them. They have a fine trade, and their large and increasing business renders it necessary for them

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pagumonia, Hemerrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained? Boscher's Gramas Byaur has gained the largest sale in the world for the ours of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Biseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest carrand no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Aky your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large sizes 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

A Frankfort, Ky., Physician Writes:
Some months ago the daughter of one of our prominent citizens was pronounced a hopeless consumptive. She was very much reduced in flesh, terrible cough, her lille gradually wasting away. I recommended her to use "Dr. Swayne's Commond Syrup of Wild Cherry," which she did. In a short time she was free from all cough and other symptoms, and is now rosy and healthy. Price 25 cents and $1 00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5. The large size is the most economical. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Sold by druggists in Wheeling and elsewhere.

chair cars are a luxury which to be fully appreciated must be tried. They have them on all trains for the use of first-class passengers.

The city from wich I write this, "Qoincy, "reminds one somewhat of Cleveland, O. Its streets are wide and clean, with numerous shade trees. I believe I never visited a city where there was as many good residences in proportion to the population as Quincy, Ill. This is a staid, abour, quiet community, the society here being unexcelled. I had the pleasure yesterday evening of meeting Mr. W. S. Warfield and wile, formerly of Bridgeport, O., at a social party given by one of Quincy's leading citzens. Mr. Warfield is the wholesale grocer of this place. His wife, who was a Miss Howell, is a very accompliahed lady.

I have received copies of your paper up to Saturday, 18th inst, for which accept thanks. I will start for home on Monday next.

Answers to Correspondents.

In reply te-the many inquiries which we have received regarding a most prominent modern remedy we would say: To the best of our belief, Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is pure in its nature, efficient in its action and certain in its results. We have learned of some remarkable curse which it has effected and believe that as a preventive of disease it is unequalled. For delicate ladies and enfeebled men it is invaluable and its pure vegetable qualities commend it to the favor and use of all.

IN MEMORIAN-M. B. H.

Fet while to earth is bent our sordid heads, the heaven in glory still above us spreads, and earth is flied with beauty every where, while heavenly harmonies thril through the Chough blind and deaf we are all unaware.

uch was the gentle one for whom we weep, Whose clay cold corse row calmiy lies, asies low in the earth; life, love, all flown away, I sweeter soul ne'er dwelt in mortal clay.

"I hear the tread of pioneers,
Of na ions yet to be
The first low wash of wares
Where soon will roll the human sea."

I also met while there W. H. McDoel, I also met while there W. H. McDoel, Esq., the general freight agent of the Hannibal & St. Joseph rrilroad, a very pleasant and courteous genleman. Persons coming or going to Kansas Gity can find no better line of travel than the Hannibal & St. Joseph. Their new reclining chair cars are a luxury which to be fully appreciated must be tried. They have them on all trains for the use of first-class passengers.

THE LEADING SCIENTISTS OF TO-DAY agree that most disease are course by disordered Ridneys or layer. If, therefore, the Ridneys and liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure maries a new era in the retainment of these iroubles.
